Terms and conditions

Please remember these key elements of the licensing agreement:

1. Keep the registration URLs issued by Scootle confidential
2. Read and understand the Conditions of Use associated with content, which are plain English summaries of what you can and cannot do with an item of content
3. Use content only for non-commercial educational purposes
4. If downloading content, place it only on a secure intranet or content management system, where access is restricted to individuals that are part of your institution. The content must not be provided to other parties
5. Ensure the Conditions of Use and Acknowledgments statements remain associated with the content, and refrain from altering these
6. Use content only within Australia and New Zealand
7. You do not need to comply with the requirements of any statutory copyright licence when using the content (eg. you do not have to pay royalties to a copyright collecting society such as CAL).
